

Spouse Program

A hhhh...The Ritz-Carlton Naples, one of the most beautiful locations to celebrate another LTC 100! It's the quintessential escape. The minute you walk through the lobby doors, you'll be swept up in elegance and luxury. Located on the Gulf of Mexico, just a few short steps from the beach, this is the ideal place to take in a morning yoga session or an evening sunset viewing. It really doesn't get any better.

The highlight of this year's program is most certainly Monday's Catamaran Cruise. And because the cruise is only available on weekdays, we moved the book club up to Sunday. We'll mail you the book to read before the conference.

Heads up! Monday night's dinner is a White Party, so don't forget to pack something white to wear.

Please make sure I have your e-mail address for further communications. See you in Naples!

The novel critics are calling “heart-tugging,” “perfect” and a “meditation on humility” is coming to LTC 100. Told from the perspective of canine narrator Enzo, Garth Stein's The Art of Racing in the Rain piques your curiosity from page one with Enzo's alternative view of humans. On the eve of his death, Enzo (the dog) takes stock of his life, recalling all that he and his family have been through. A deeply moving but funny and ultimately uplifting story of family, love, loyalty, and hope, The Art of Racing in the Rain is a wonderfully crafted look at the wonders and absurdities of human life – as only a dog can tell it.
